Management Reduces Cost

April 9, 2014 • 2:30 pm - 3:30 pm CST

About this series:

This three part teleconference series will give you strategies and tips for combating injuries and reducing incidents while on the job, how to reduce the number of workers' compensation claims and how to combine safety and claims management to reduce cost.

Safety Basics for Home Care Agencies

Wednesday, March 19, 2014 • 2:30 pm - 3:30 pm CST

Injury prevention efforts, also known as safety programs help increase the profitability and performance of your organization. Injuries not only take good people off the job, but they significantly increase cost and reduce your organizations' ability to compete in the market. Learn simple and effective methods for combating injuries and reducing incidents. Topics discussed include the value of safety efforts including policy and procedure, training, enforcement and incentives.

Proper Management of Worker's Compensation

Wednesday, March 26, 2014 • 2:30 pm - 3:30 pm CST

This session will explain how the workers' compensation system works in Missouri and how agencies can control their workers' compensation costs. You will learn how improper workers; compensation claims management can cause unnecessary long-term costs. Topics will include how simple strategies can reduce the number and severity of workers' compensation claims and how proper incident management will lead to savings.

Combining Safety & Claims Management Reduces Costs!

Wednesday, April 9, 2014 • 2:30 pm - 3:30 pm CST

This session will explain how to combine safety and claims management together into an overall program that keeps employees safe, healthy and productive—as well as reduce costs and liability for your agency. These strategies include safety education, policies, communication and a dash of aggressiveness. Participants will be provided with simple and achievable methods for improving your overall injury management program, as well as a listing of free resources.
