

The Aide's Role in Working with a Terminal Client & Family

A Webinar • Thursday, April 13, 2017 • 2:00—3:00 p.m. CST

Presented by Cindy R. Morgan, RN, MSN, CHC, CHPN

What does it mean to be terminally ill? This presentation will define terminally ill as well as some of the different aspects of care that are so important to the patients and families facing a terminal illness. Learn about the trajectory of terminal illness and what to expect when the patient is nearing the end of life.

About our speaker: Cindy R. Morgan, RN, MSN, CHC, CHPN is a certified trainer in coaching supervision and also a certified Health Coach. She has worked in various director level positions in Home Care and Hospice throughout the years. Her work in Hospice began as a volunteer nurse in the 1980's. Later in her career, she was the Assistant Vice President of a large Home Care and Hospice organization in Central North Carolina where she was responsible for overseeing both home health and hospice operations. Cindy is currently the Assoc. Vice President of Hospice, Palliative Care and Clinical Innovations, AHHC of North Carolina.

Use this session to meet your training requirements. All in-services emphasize the role of home care aides in observation and reporting. It is the responsibility of the home care company to determine if this workshop meets the specific requirements of its aides. The Missouri Department of Health & Senior Services affirms that this session meets the requirements found at 484.36[b] of the Medicare Conditions of Participation and for in-home service companies, this session meets the required standard for on-going training of aides.
