

Missouri Alliance for Home Care presents...

What's New in Home Health Conditions of Participation

A 2-part webinar series for all Medicare Home Health Agencies

Tuesday, February 14 & 21, 2017 • 10:00—11:00 a.m. CST

Featuring Catherine Gill, MS, PT, MHA

LW Consulting, Inc.

These Conditions of Participation go into effect July 13, 2017 – Only 5 months to prepare!
Are you ready?

Two years after they were proposed, the new Home Health Conditions of Participation have been released. They represent the first change in these regulations since OASIS was implemented back in 1999. You don't want to miss these webinars and the valuable information you will receive!

- Part 1 (February 14): We will review the underlying philosophy and rationale of the changes and discuss changes in client rights, comprehensive assessment, professional services and home health aide services.
- Part 2 (February 21): We will focus on the new requirements, quality improvement performance (QAPI), infection control and emergency preparedness.

About our Speaker: Catherine Gill has over 25 years of health care experience as a clinician, researcher, hospital nursing director, home health agency administrator, and consultant. She managed home health services for Primaris, the Missouri QIO, was the agency administrator for North Kansas City Hospital Home Health and has served on the state Home Health Advisory Council. She has presented nationwide on a variety of clinical, operational, and compliance topics. She recently joined the team at LW Consulting, based in Harrisburg, PA, as the Director of Clinical & Rehab Services.
