2016 Home Care Foundation Scholarship Winners

Amelia Aubuchon

Amelia was chosen to receive a $1,000 scholarship. Amelia is currently employed with Right at Home St. Louis as an RN/Field Manager. Amelia feels the best way for her to channel her passion for the aging adult and achieve the desired impact on the geriatric population is by furthering her education as an RN to obtain a graduate degree. She is attending Maryville University in pursuit of a Master of Science in Nursing Nurse Practitioner Program. Amelia has many personal goals for pursuing this degree including continuing in Private Duty home care and teaching in a college setting to nursing students.

Jennifer Taylor

Jennifer was chosen to receive a $1,000 scholarship. Jennifer is currently employed with North Kansas City Hospital Home Health as the RN Case Manager. She knew when she graduated in 2001 with her BSN that her education journey was not over. In January 2014 she started her graduate path to a Family Nurse Practitioner and is currently attending Research College of Nursing. Jennifer's goal is to make an impact on patient care and give the best treatment possible for people in their home. To her, quality of care, continuation of care, continuity of care, and timeliness of care are vital to positive outcomes and patient satisfaction.
