

Overcoming the Challenges of the Hospice Quality Reporting Program

Webinar & Audio Recording • Tuesday, August 28, 2018 • 10:30 am—12:00 pm CST

Hospice Quality Reporting has challenged Hospice providers on many levels. What started as a voluntary program of quality reporting has now evolved to mandatory reporting which has the potential to impact public perception of the care the Hospice provides and future revenue. In this webinar we will learn about the impact of Hospice Quality Reporting and ways to deal with the challenges of the Hospice Quality Reporting Program.

This webinar will:

1. Review the evolution of Hospice Quality Reporting from voluntary to mandatory reporting
2. Review the Hospice Quality Reporting challenges identified by providers
3. Discuss future trends and challenges of Hospice Quality Reporting

About the Presenter: Kathy Royer, RN, MBA, DMin, CHPN, CHPCA is the hospice regulatory director for the Ohio Council for Home Care and Hospice. She is a registered nurse with more than 22 years of experience in hospice. She served as a corporate division director with a demonstrated history of improvement in quality scores. She has expertise in hospice and hospital environments. Kathy is skilled in corporate leadership development, operations management, regulatory consultation, coaching, Palliative Care, team building, and as a cultural change agent.
