

Missouri Alliance for Home Care presents...

Your Ethical Obligations as a Home Care Coder

Webinar with Audio Recording for all Home Health Agencies

Tuesday, January 29, 2019 • 9:00—10:30 a.m. CST

Featuring Laura Waddle, MS, RN, HCS-D,

Educational Consultant & Director of Coding Services, Foundation Management Services

This session will help to enhance the knowledge and help identify key risk areas of the home health RN and Coder in the area of ethics in coding by addressing the False Care Act, definition of ethics, AHIMA Standards of Ethical Coding and how to apply these standards in an effort to prevent fraud and penalties. Discussion of best practices for coding & compliance for beginner to advanced coders.

About our Speaker: Laura Waddle, MS, RN, HCS-D is an Educational Consultant & Director of Coding Services for Foundation Management Services with over 30 years of experience in nursing education. She has been in home health since 2004 starting as a field nurse and progressing to Director of an agency prior to assuming the role of Educational Consultant. Working closely with Coding To Go she has the opportunity to participate in active coding of home health episodes as well as becoming familiar with documentation by many home health agencies.
