

Perspectives on True Palliative Care

Webinar Tuesday, June 11 2019 • 12:00—1:30 pm CST

Home health agencies will gain a better understanding of the palliative care model of care, and how palliative care can decrease overall healthcare expenditures across the continuum of care and improve population health management.

Objectives:

- Define the scope and role of palliative care for individuals with serious illnesses
- Discuss the palliative care model of care
- Illustrate how the palliative care model of care decreases overall healthcare expenditures across the continuum of care and improves population health management

About the Speaker:

Timothy G. Ihrig, M.D., M.A. is Chief Medical Officer of Crossroads Hospice & Palliative Care, and founder and Chief Executive Officer of Ihrig MD Associates. As a palliative care physician, he cares for the most vulnerable and sick individuals. He creates and leads health systems and teams through changes in care for the most seriously ill people. He is internationally recognized for combining clinical and administrative experience in creating health and social care systems that reliably deliver high-value outcomes in a financially sustainable manner for seriously ill populations.
