

Hospice Billing Series—Become an Elite Biller!

A 3-Part Webinar Series • September 30th, October 1st, October 2nd, 2019 • 9:00 am — 10:30 am CST

Be among the elite group of billers that are current on all Hospice Medicare billing regulations. Billing is a very critical part of hospice reimbursement, which, if driven by excellent care and documentation and a billing staff, can happen. Is your hospice billing staff current on hospice Medicare billing regulations? This 3-part series will lay a solid foundation for hospice staff that need to understand Medicare regulations. Medicare eligibility verifications, field-by-field detail on Notice of Election and claim forms, and changes to the billing requirements will be covered. This series will review regulations for billing all hospice services, face-to-face encounters, and home health providing care while a patient is on service with hospice. Hospice information, including the aggregate cap self-report, palliative care billing, and the latest on HIS updates and transmission requirements will be emphasized. If you are a part of hospice revenue-cycle management, this webinar is a must!

Part 1—September 30th: Review all eligibility requirements for admitting patients to Hospice; define benefit periods and review new common working file screens; get updates to the content of the election statement; learn how to deal with claim issues regarding late notice of election; and get updates to late notice of election exceptions and corrections.

Part 2—October 1st: Define distinct levels of care and specifics of billing them; learn details of monthly claim current; outline typical billing issues and how to handle them; learn details of the newest rate changes due to rebasing; and define standards for physician billing on hospice claims.

Part 3—October 2nd: Review Hospice face-to-face requirements; recap the self reporting of hospice aggregate cap; list palliative care specific codes for Billing Part B; outline HIS reporting requirements; and detail the top 5 medical review denial reasons.
