Symposium Description:

Boone Hospital Wound Healing Center has developed this symposium to educate health care providers who encounter patients with wound care needs. The symposium is designed to provide didactic lecture and hands-on practicum sessions to teach necessary procedures, treatment and skills.

Global Objectives:

- Describe the etiology, epidemiology, assessment and treatment of chronic non-healing wounds;
- Describe how accurate diagnosis impacts wound healing;
- Recognize common dressing materials and cost-effective wound care.

Target Audience:

All practicing physicians, NP's, nurses, nurses' aides and other interested health care professionals.
