

MAHC COMMITTEES

- Advocacy Committee – Works to assure that the legislative/regulatory climate is supportive of home care through advocacy initiatives. Provides education and information to MAHC membership about the legislative and governmental process and current legislative/regulatory issues. This committee focuses on home health, in-home, private duty, hospice and Medicare/Medicaid issues.
- Annual Conference Committee – Plans and implements all details of the Annual Conference and Home Care Exhibition, an educational networking event for the home care industry.
- Awards Committee – Oversees the nomination and selection of award recipients each year and the presentations that recognize the honorees.
- CDS Taskforce/ State Programs & Medicaid Taskforce – Focuses on issues specific to vendors of CDS and focuses on issues impacting state home care programs including Home Health, In-Home and Private Duty nursing.
- Education Committee – Assesses educational resource needs of all member companies and establishes plans to meet those needs through workshops, seminars, printed and audio/visual materials
- Membership Committee - Develops new member benefits and plans for enhancing member recruitment. Assists in conducting regional member forums.
- Pediatric Taskforce – Focuses on pediatric education, fall risk assessment and identifying resources that could be shared with pediatric home care providers.
- Private Duty Committee – Focuses on issues unique to private duty providers, particularly data, education, and standards.
- Home Health Taskforce – Focuses on issues related to Home Health and Reimbursement
