Emergency Preparedness Workshop

Aug. 30, 2017 | St. Joseph Medical Center | KCMO

Is your health care facility working to increase emergency preparedness and address the CMS Conditions of Preparedness?

If so, please join us on August 30 for a workshop hosted by the MARC Health Care Coalition

This workshop will help health care providers cultivate new professional relationships with like organizations and emergency preparedness professionals in the bistate Kansas City region.

Participants will strengthen their emergency preparedness capabilities and be better prepared to address the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) Emergency Preparedness conditions of participation. Learn how you can enhance collaboration and develop or increase your ability to design and conduct exercises within your organizations.

Participants will work together to better understand the risks and vulnerabilities throughout the region, identify available resources to assist in emergency preparedness planning efforts, discuss collaboration strategies with community partners, participate in a training session on how to conduct a tabletop exercise, and provide input about future collaboration.

OBJECTIVES:

- Discuss collaboration strategies with community partners.
- Build an understanding of CMS emergency preparedness rules for health care organizations and resources that can help you increase your organization's emergency preparedness.
- Build relationships with potential community partners, identifying existing provider-specific forums and discussing new forums to further collaborate on emergency preparedness efforts.
- Learn about the region's threats and hazards to help inform your planning and facility assessment.
- Explore strategies for provider inclusion in community full-scale exercises.
